(c): if so, the total number of contracts awarded to construction firms through tenders in Madhya Pradesh by the Corporation since 2000, till date; and

(d): the number of tenders out of them not approved by the Tata Consultancy Limited?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM & NATURAL GAS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINIST OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR GANGWAR)

(a): Yes, Sir.

(b): No, Sir.

(c) & (d): The Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. (IOC) had appointed M/s TCE Consulting Engineers as Consultant for tendering of zonal rate contract for works to be carried out in a few States, including Madhya Pradesh, for the period from November, 2000 to October, 2002. The scope of work of this Consultant is limited to rate analysis of various items, preparation of tenders, verification of documents of the tenderers and putting up their recommendations to IOC for final approval for empanelment of contractors.

Based on the zonal contract finalized by the Western Region of IOC through M/s TCE Consulting Engineers, a total of 660 work orders was issued for works in Madhya Pradesh, including Chhattisgarh, during the years 2000, 2001 and 2002.
